Out On My Own

Diamond Rugs

Well I can't go back no I can't go back To my home so far away
But the things that she would do no I can't believe it's true
I wish that she would stayNever claimed to be the best so she got to try to the rest
I'll see her on another day
Now I'm back to where I'm from and feeling to undone
She has something better to sayOh please out on my own
Love me
Like I did no wrongNow Im turning around heading back into town I'll show her how to make it right I put her through hell so i guess i might as well show her that i found the lightbut im a liar liar liar lighting all my notes on fire and crying like a little babe I'm running out of dreams
Im blowing off some steam
And charlie gonna make it okaySo please out on my own
Love me
Like I did no wrongI've changed changed your mind
I'll change change your mindWell I cant go back no i cant go back
I made my home so far away all the things that she would do now i cant believe its true i wish that she would stayI never claimed to be the best so shes gotta try the rest now i,=m back to where im from and im feeling so undone she has something better to say
