Identity

Phil Stacey

You are love, so I am love
You are joy and so I am joy
You are peace, so I am peace
Lord everything You are now becomes me
And the line between where
You begin and where I end is gone
I'm in You, I know who I am
You're my true born identity
And I'm not the one I used to be
'Cause now there is no separating You
From who I am
You are strong, so I am strong
You are power and so I am powerful
You are mercy, so I am mercy
Lord everything You are now becomes me
And the line between where
You begin and where I end is gone
Now I'm in You, I know who I am
You're my true born identity
And I'm not the one I used to be
'Cause now there is no separating You
'Cause we're in You
Anything less is not us, anything less is not us
Anything else is not who we are
'Cause we're in You and You're who we are You're our true born identity
And we're not the ones we used to be
'Cause now there is no separating
Not the ones we used to be
'Cause now there is no separating You
'Cause anything less is not us, anything less is not us
Anything else is not who we are
Anything less is not us, anything less is not us
Anything else is not who we are
