

If That's What It Takes

Clay Crosse

You say, you fell out of love with no place to stand
You say, your heart's on the mend from a broken romance
You say, you don't want to trust because it hurts too much
And you think, I'd never understand Tell me what have I got to do
To make a believer of you? Do I have to turn water into wine, turn some stones into bread?
Do I have to paint my heart across the sky in a blazing shade of red?
Do I have to push the sun into the sea to make you fall in love with me?
Oh, if that's what it takes then let it be
(That's what it takes) You say, you don't need my love but I know it's a lie
You say, I shouldn't even try Tell me what have I got to lose
To make a believer of you? Do I have to turn water into wine, turn some stones into bread?
Do I have to paint my heart across the sky in a blazing shade of red?
Do I have to push the sun into the sea to make you fall in love with me?
Oh, if that's what it takes then let it be
(That's what it takes)
Let it be You need me to turn the tide of your ocean
Let me set your heart back into motion
Ooh yeah Do I have to turn water into wine, turn some stones into bread?
Do I have to paint my heart across the sky in a blazing shade of red?
Do I have to push the sun into the sea to make you fall in love with me?
Oh, if that's what it takes then let it be
(That's what it takes)
Let it be, yeah Do I have to turn water into wine?
(If that's what it takes, if that's what it takes)
Swim the deepest ocean, climb the highest mountain
(If that's what it takes, if that's what it takes)
Oh, oh
(If that's what it takes, if that's what it takes)
Oh, yeah, yeah
(If that's what it takes, if that's what it takes)

Songwriters

JOHN MANDEVILLE, TY LACY Published by
Lyrics © THE BICYCLE MUSIC COMPANY

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>