

The Tension Between Stillness and Motion

Grade

I'm at a loss for words but I keep on speaking

Apologies, I have none

I'm not ashamed of who I am or what I've done
The courage cannot be approached with caution

The courage cannot be approached with caution
The courage cannot be approached with caution
And I'm one hundred percent that I'm not sure

'Cause every time you think you got it, it changes
And if I want it I'll get it

And you know what, I want it all

And if I want it I'll get it

And you know what, I want it all
And I've got it all
Yet I'm getting the mixture down

Yet I'm getting the mixture down
[Incomprehensible] getting the mixture down
But I'm staying, yes, I'm staying

It's the difference between

What's right and doing the right thing

Yeah, doing the right thing
