

Everybody Needs Somebody

**Paul Thorn**

everybody needs somebody living on your own sure can make you feel alone you get too many quiet nights and lonely days but when you make a friend that's when everybody wins a little love can put a smile on your face everybody needs somebody everybody needs somebody some folks never stop until they make it to the top they don't mind burning bridges all along the way but on the way back down there will be no one around remember karma and consequence don't play i'm just like you sometimes i get the blues every day cannot be a sunny day my sisters, my brothers if we lean on one another just watch the clouds roll away
