

Electric Kiss

The Romantic Era

I design the buildings
Thought I could make a killing
Selling rain, to a hail storm
Standing in the middle of a field
With my hand out to my sides
Screaming deals out to the side

With tears behind my, tears behind my eyesYour electric kiss honey will you stay

To help me pass these nights away
Like the sun it meets a thunderstorm
Bringing colors to life again
Here we come alive
Please lightning strike me twice
Because that first time you kissed me
I finally felt alive
Here we come alive
I get paid for progress

But I know that we are not done yet

She struck me hard, now it's for keepsStanding in the middle of a field
With my hand out to my sides
Screaming deals out to the side

With tears behind my, tears behind my eyesYour electric kiss honey will you stay

To help me pass these nights away
Like the sun it meets a thunderstorm
Bringing colors to life again

Here we come alive

Please lightning strike me twice

Because that first time you kissed me
I finally felt alive
Here we come alive

I'll build you the tallest building of all

Sell it to the sky to spark this off

Shock me with your lips girl

Yea your electric kiss girl

I'll build you the tallest building of all

Sell it to the sky to spark this off

Shock me with your lips girl

You shock me, you shock me, yeaYour electric kiss honey will you stay

To help me pass these nights away

Like the sun it meets a thunderstorm

Bringing colors to life again
Here we come alive
Please lightning strike me twice
Because that first time you kissed me
I finally felt alive
Here we come alive
