

Yesterday's News (Baseball Park Sessions)

Whiskeytown

well traveling to the point that I, I can't stop it get so familiar never get enough talk about it all the time just drop it

damage on your pretty little eyes says it all

I can't stand to be under your wing

I can't fly or sink or swim it's a lot like falling down standing up and I'm falling down your my cup till I understand

wait a minute and see the pieces don't fit this time well yesterday's news is what I have been reading see you at the Comet and I end up needing know if you were thinking it could have been it was nothing it's cause nothing's what you did

I can't stand to be under your wing

understand

wait a minute and see the pieces don't fit this time

I can't stand to be under your wing

I can't fly or sink or swim it's a lot like falling down standing u and I'm falling down your my cup till I understand

wait a minute and see the pieces don't fit this time
