Mmm I saw the river, just pulled him down I knew the man who hunted him down We watched the river take him away Before he died I could've swore he said Umm I am the only one left Mmm tired and afraid lies a saddened man Knelt beside him with head in hand And escapes all the day with a lonely breath But before he died I could've swore he said Umm I am the only one left Who ever cared a damn 'bout you I am sorry, I am sorry I was wrong and I was wrong And I've been wrong for way too long And I am sorry that you're gone, yeah oh Umm I am the only one left Who ever cares a damn 'bout you I am sorry, I am sorry I was wrong and I was wrong And I've been wrong for way too long And I am sorry
