

Ginevra (Instrumental Mix)

Wlady

away your life and all the chances you have found but now i know why you are so blind
she just wants to play
your life is her game
and she'll never see your smile
i want you to know
that you must be strong
now i'm here for you
but i can't do anything i always see your tears come down but never happiness, hope and joy i heard only screams and shouts but i never hear your laugh
and she'll never see your smile
but now it's time to change your life and see the whole world in a different way now you have to take control and understand why you are so blind, so blind
now i'm here for you
