Lost

Death Angel

Can anybody hear me now
A cruel land's fallen son
Pleading to the skies above
Forgive me please for what I've doneThe only truth is death they claim
I chose to gift that lie
Force feeding truth to so many
My eyes numb as I watched them die[Chorus]
Train me, then blame me
I bought into this game
Mold me, then scold me
I'll never be the sameIf only you could see me now
I broke a dark one-sided twisted vow
You take a poor, broke, lost, and stolen soul
And simply throw his world awayBelieve me when I tell you now
They mold the truth, and turn it upside down
It took me years to see, and comes this far
And still I feel so lost todayWill anybody save me now
Exposed I stand alone
A prisoner in my own body
No place really feels like homeI've grown to see the wrong I've done
And I cannot shake this pain
So I close my eyes, and let it go
With one final breath of shame[Chorus]Rain down on me
And wash this pain away
Rain down on me
And wash this pain away
