All The Right Moves

Willa Ford

You're makin all the right moves
saying all the right words
making my heart attack my brain
I'll never be the same
your love is like a game
I don't wanna lose you now
'cause you keep makin all the right moves
hey yea oh
I think someone heard my prayer I can't believe that I'm not dreamin when I see you standing there I cant find words for what I'm feeling you're playin with my passion you're loving my reaction
You're makin all the right moves
saying all the right words
making my heart attack my brain
I'll never be the same
your love is like a game
I don't wanna lose you now
hey yea oh
Boy the way I felt for you sometimes I'm too scared to mention but I wonder if you're confused to give you my love is my intention my world turns all around you I cant believe that I found you, you, you You're makin all the right moves
saying all the right words

I'll never be the same
hey yea oh
You're makin all the right moves
saying all the right words

I'll never be the same
hey yea oh
when we're together its so exciting now I just cant imagine my life without you, you
hey yea oh
hey yea oh
