

Taken

Building 429

Little did we know just how far we'd fall
Far enough to dim the light of the sun
We're glad we're alone, we're broken and abused
It took us where you said it would But I just want to see you now
Oh, you know that I just need to see you now You are so beautiful
You are so beautiful tonight
I'm perfect and done changing
Your life is broken over me
I'm taking my word I'm saying tonight, yeah, tonight Completely misread and completely unimpressed
All the [Incomprehensible]
I've perfectly doused that flame still burning
Even through the highest highs I dive
I see clearly what I missed
Oh, you know that I see, all I want is this You are so beautiful, you are so beautiful
You are so beautiful tonight
I'm perfect and done changing
Your life is broken over me
I'm taking my word I'm saying Tonight, the sky is bright to see
Tonight, the ties are broken
Tonight, I will fall on you
Tonight, this light is reckoning
Tonight, your words were spoken
Tonight, I will fall on you You are so beautiful, you are so beautiful
You are so beautiful tonight
I'm perfect and done changing
Your life is broken over me
And I'm taking the word I'm saying tonight
