Idiom Wind

Zammuto

We could talk all night, But talking isn't real
We could put a name on it, But it's not the real nameThe perfect fault, call it what you will
It still won't last that long, cause you're headstrong
You're headstrong, Sorry but you're wrongAn educated man, doing everything he can
Which isn't much, cause his education isn't worth a damnTry getting off your ass, Try picking up then ask Things are getting overgrow, and it's time for worthless cutting.
Words without sweating, "never to heaven go."Educated Man,
You're an idiom babe, twisting in the wind
Remember how you used to take the bit between your teeth.Idiom Wind
And all you do is rub the surface you're exposed when everything you need is underneathIf you grew a spine, If you lived the long time
Tragedy is bound to find you, cause you're headstrong
You're headstrong, I know you'd do it all again
Words without sweating, never to heaven go.
