Washing The World Away

Crossfade

When will this all be over
How come this never ends
And this room keeps closing in on me
That much of silence I can't seeThis pain could all be over
If I just break an eye
Keep holding on to some star
That stops fromWashing the world away
Hey, yeah, hey, yeah
Washing the world away
Hey, yeah, hey, yeah
Washing the world awayWhy can't I get through today
Feeling blind, with only me to blame
Still I find, I try to hide
Maybe in time I'll find my wayI find that no one understands me
Feel so all alone
Does anyone feel the way I do
I just wanna take all this outThis pain could all be over
If I just break an eye
Keep holding on some star
That stops fromWashing the world away
Hey, yeah, hey, yeah
Washing the world away
Hey, yeah, hey, yeah
Washing the world awaySo how can I get through today
Feeling blind, with only me to blame
Still I find, I try to hide
Maybe in time I'll find my wayI don't think I'll make it through today
I'm feeling blind and there's only me to blame
But still I find, try to hide
Maybe this time I'll find my way, yeah
