

Breathe

Kamchatka

It leaves a sou taste in my mouth,
looking back at me.

That one can be so full of doubt in one's will to be. Where did I go wrong
to end up where I was yesterday?

Have I been lost too long
to ever find my way? Breathe in, breathe out.

Leave all that behind.

So simple, yet so hard,
to free me of me. So much I wish I could undo.

I've stayed alive on the hope that one day life will be through rubbing my nose in it. Where did I go wrong
to end up where I was yesterday?

Have I been lost too long
to ever find my way? Breathe in, Breathe out.

Leave all that behind.

So simple, yet so hard,
to free me of me.
