

Beyond Tomorrow

Stan Ridgway

We will be driving in little time bombs everywhere

One a seat in a skyscraper with aluminum hair

therre'll be someone downstairs

Collecting all our names

Numbers all in a file somewhere

Everyone will be saved

CHORUS

Beyond tomorrow, beyond tomorrow

Someone will be in the air

In a plane by the sea

I could be anywhere at all

If I could just be

I'll eat candied policemen

You'll eat farmers fromell

Everyone will be very modern

Can't you tell?...

CHORUS

There could be another one come from the East

With a mark on his head, the sign of the beast

Then we will all extinguish

Fromhis thing we call yeast

Did we come from yest?...

Way back when in a Petri dish

We were mated with some weird kinda fish

Then we grew arms and legs

Now we have 'em alive-no eggs

In a room far away near the capitol

There's a nox that sits on someone's skull

We'll all be waitin' for the word comin' down

Mentime...let's blow this town

DON'T BLAME ME...
