Welcome to Dying.

Blind Guardian

Close to insanity
Beyond the realms I've been
At darkest places
I'm crying, "The dragon flies"Something savage
Is yearning for me
I'm waiting afraid for the night what will beI've lost myself a few days ago
It's touching my soul
And the vision of past dreams comes trueWelcome to dying
I don't let it out
Welcome to dying
Look to the mirror, it shows what I amWelcome to dying
This town must burn now
Welcome to dying
Can't you see the dragon's seed bears in meThe one who's been before
Many times I terrorized this town
Many times and here I start again
Now I'm stronger and so cold, cold as iceReturning is my destiny
Now I feel it's growing up in me
Now I feel it's burning deep in meI'm not what I was before
Could I stop this dream
I'm not a stranger to myself
And I cannot controlWelcome to dying
I don't let it out
Welcome to dying
Look to the mirror it shows what I amWelcome to dying
Can't you see the dragon's seed bears in me
Welcome to dying
The dragon's breath, I don't let it outI'm a savage, it's too late for me
The other side's taking control and I know
There's one way I can walk alone
The dragon will fly
And a growing fear's all that I feelWelcome to dying
I don't let it out
Welcome to dying
Look to the mirror it shows what I amWelcome to dying
This town must burn now
Welcome to dying
Can't you see the dragon's seed bears in meWelcome to dying
Welcome to dying

Welcome to dying
Welcome to dying
Welcome to dying
Welcome to dying
Can't you see the dragon's seed bears in meSpread my wings and fly away
I spread my wings and fly away
I spread my wings and fly away
