Let Me Know

Maxi Priest

Let's go again
This time I'm gonna make it, oh baby
Oh babyI seemed to have woken up too early this morning
I stop and wonder, why?
Sweet visions of you, awoken me from my slumber
I ask my self is it really true? YeahIs this the girl I desire?
I wanna know, I gotta know
I wanna know for sure, oh girlIf your dreams are without me
Let me know, oh, oh girl
If your dreams are without me
Let me know, oh, oh girlIt's not every day I wake up, that I'm happy
It's not every day I'm sad
This vibe, this vibe, this vibe, that I'm feeling
I wanna know if you really feel it too, yeahSometimes when I'm lonely
This blue feeling takes a hold of me
I need your loving close to me
I need your loving desperately
So tell me, 'cause I really got to knowIf your dreams are without me
Let me know, oh, oh girl
If your dreams are without me
Let me know, oh, oh girlSee sometimes when I'm lonely
This blue feeling takes a hold of me
I need your loving close to me
I need your loving desperatelySo, if your dreams are without me
Let me know, oh, oh girl
If your dreams are without me
Let me know, oh, oh girlIf your dreams are without me
Really gotta know
If your dreams are without me
