He Needs Me

Shelley Duvall

He needs me
He doesn't know it but he needs me
And so no matter where he goes
Though he doesn't care
He knows I'm hereHe needs me
I ought to leave him but he needs me
I guess it isn't very bright
Just to tag along
But right or wrong, I'm here, I'm hisAnd I'll be a friend or a lover
Because my one ambition is
To wake him and make him discoverHe needs me
I've got to follow where he leads me
Or else he'll never know that I need him
Just as he needs meAnd I'll be a friend or a lover
Because my one ambition is
To wake him and make him discoverHe needs me
I've got to follow where he leads me
Or else he'll never know that I need him
Just as he needs me
