

Who's Next

Porcelain Black

I'm not a bad girl
You're just a prude
You're a little bitch
And I'm straight up rude I keep it blunt while you beat around the bush
You like to hug and baby boy I like to push You don't have to like me
Cause I don't like you
You're too beige
And I need black and blue
I want it black and blue I wanna boy that tastes
Like whiskey and cigarettes
So who's it gonna be
Who's gonna be next He strokes my kitty cat
Just like it's his pet
That's how I get the boys
I get 'em obsessed So who's next
Who's next
Who's next On a whiskey diet
Only happy when I'm starving
Vicodins are my vitamins
Slutty when I'm letharging Black rainbows are our halos
Busting faces with our elbows
Trainwrecks got you coming
Kid, I know I got you bugging You don't have to like me
Cause I don't like you
You're too beige
And I need black and blue
I want it black and blue I wanna boy that tastes
Like whiskey and cigarettes
So who's it gonna be
Who's gonna be next He strokes my kitty cat
Just like it's his pet
That's how I get the boys
I get 'em obsessed So who's next
Who's next
Who's next Word on the street is I'm out of control
But that's cause I am totally rock and roll
Totally rock and roll I wanna boy that tastes
Like whiskey and cigarettes
So who's it gonna be

Who's gonna be nextHe strokes my kitty cat
Just like it's his pet
That's how I get the boys
I get 'em obsessedI wanna boy that tastes
Like whiskey and cigarettes
So who's it gonna be
I get 'em obsessedSo who's next
Who's next
Who's next
Who's next
Who's next
