Only the Heart Within You

Stephen Bishop

There's a light
And it's shining in the night
For the soul who steers the flight
As the sidewalk dreamers
Slip across the scene looking to winA stranger lights a candle
Out here in the windLet it rain down on the outsider
As he waits for the change
No reminder of the past
Safe within the sheltered arms
Of someone you will never knowA stand-in for the part
No one can tell you what to do
Only the heart within you
Yes it is only the heart within youOh, I see all the faces go gently byAnd the silence chills the fighter
In the eyes of the night
No reminder of the past
Safe within these sheltered arms at lastA light in the dark
No beast so fierce
Can change this view
Only the heart within you
Yes it is only the heart within you
Yes it is only the heart within youLet it rain down
Let it rain down
Let it rain down
