Junior Jackson

What should I say
To show you I felt the same
What can I do to make you see the proof?Now all my angst
Is gone and I give my thanks
To whatever you see that brought you back to meAnd everyday looks bright
'Cuz now a familiar sight is standing right next to me
And I'm no longer sad
You know that you drove me mad, you are the one that I adoreI never wanted you to leave
Things I said I didn't mean
I never told you so
I never thought you'd goMy life is meaningful again
You're in my arms, you're my best friend
I never told you though
I never thought you'd goWhat do I know
Not much so I guess I'll go
And pretend that everything is all okayWhat did I do
When I left my heart with you
And I never even asked to have it backAnd everyday looks bright
'Cuz now a familiar sight is standing right next to me
And I'm no longer sad
You know that you drove me mad, you are the one that I adoreI never wanted you to leave
Things I said I didn't mean
I never told you so
I never thought you'd goMy life is meaningful again
You're in my arms, you're my best friend
I never told you though
I never thought you'd goAnd I never want to do
What you wanna do
And I never wanna go
Where you wanna go
And I never wanna see youI never wanted you to leave
Things I said I didn't mean
I never told you so
I never thought you'd goMy life is meaningful again
You're in my arms, you're my best friend
I never told you though
I never thought you'd go
