

Hero

Pat McGee Band

She can bring back the days when the night never ends
She will find you flyin' around life again
Think about your world now, a walk through the park
Bet you nearly lost it, this time worlds apart
Never thought much about it and you really never do
Till when the day comes she's leavin' you
She'll be your hero when the lightning falls
She'll tend to your head down and break down the walls
She can promise you Heaven then drag you through Hell
And she'll never look back, you might as well
You'll be draggin' this dragon around your life
She'll be ragin' inside you, looks like another fight
Backed up and burned out, like a flame at both ends
Scorchin' and thirstin' for some time to mend
Never thought much about it and you really never do
Till when the day comes, she's leavin' you
She'll be your hero when the lightning falls
She'll tend to your head down and break down the walls
She can promise you Heaven then drag you through Hell
She'll never look back, you might as well
She never meant to hurt you, don't you think it's true?
She wouldn't want to leave you, just got to break on through Sometimes when you're alone and think about the day
And love will never find her, she's asked for it that way
She'll be your hero when the lightning falls
She'll tend to your head down and break down the walls
She can promise you Heaven then drag you through Hell
She'll never look back, you might as well
She'll be your hero when the lightning falls
She'll tend to your head down and break down the walls
She can promise you Heaven then drag you through Hell
She'll never look back, you might as well, yeah
Might as well
You might as well
You'd might as well, oh
