

Wish That You Were Mine

The Mannhattans

Baby, could we have the same table we had yesterday

Woo, ooh, ooh, ooh

Here we are again

Sipping our drinks just like friends

I wonder if they see the sparkle in your eyes

I wonder if they know that I'm not your guy, mmm, hmm

I wonder if they see

That you don't belong to me

Wish that you could be mine

Mine, all mine, mmm~'mmm~'

It'll be hard for him to understand

I am his friend and he is your man

I wonder what my lady would say

If she knew I met you everyday, mmm, hmm

Sooner or later

Don't you know they're gonna find out and they'll hate us

Oh, I wish that you could be mine

Mine, all mine, mmm~'mmm~'

It's two a.m., the place is gonna close

The bartender looks as though he knows

Everybody's, everybody's made it home

Here we sit again all alone, mmm, hmm

I've got to get up at 8

Don't you know I've got to explain why I'm so late, mmm~'mmm~'

I wish I didn't have to go home

Whoa~'whoa~'whoa~'whoa~'go home

I wish that you were mine, baby

Oh, I'd give you the world

And every little thing your heart desires

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com

written by Lovett, Winfred

Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlyrics.com/>