Blood in the Water

Samantha Fish

Run from your people
Run from your home
What is the matter?
What's goin' on?
I see the panic
I hear the howl
Tell me what did they do nowThere is blood in the water
There is blood in the water
Where will you go?
I'd like to know
'Cause I've been thinking 'bout cutting out too
I see you still
It's just a chill
A thought that haunts everything that I doThere is blood in the water
There is blood in the waterA far wind blows
The bones exposed
While I was staring at the ground
All of those fears finally disappeared
How could we forget you now?
There is blood in the water
There is blood in the water
There is blood in the water
There is blood in the water
