Vienna Teng

Why am I walking barefoot
Upon this road with no one around
I close my eyes to this decision
The night's like coffee to my tongue
Like waking up without a sound
I map the words out maybe you will say them
Would you help me rise up?
Touch my face and watch me try to breathe again
Would you let me do this?
Burn down the final wall
Overcome me baby
Overcome me baby
Overcome me yeah
All I'm asking is to be alive
For once
Always I am mistaken
I look for love, I find a storm
Of all the seasons winter befriends me
I come to you in friendship
And hold my breath against the snow
What are you thinking as I gaze into you
Forgive me the confusion
Forgive me as I realize my thoughts betrayed
You are the answer
Cry and smile the same
Overcome me baby
Overcome me baby
Overcome me baby
Overcome me yeah
All I'm asking is to be
All I'm asking is to be alive
Overcome me baby
Overcome me baby
Overcome me baby
Overcome me baby
Overcome
Overcome
Overcome
All I'm asking is to be
All I'm
