Deep Sea Diver

Oregon Bike Trails

You came running out of the dark
With the tears in your eyes
This time I'm not afraid
Cause my heart's ablaze
Baby, throw your hair back!
Let your heart down!
Baby, let your hair down.
It's time to get enchanted.
You're a deep sea diver.
Tides are turning in your favour.
You came running out of the dark,
With the tears in your eyes.
And the moth and the moon saw
A new religion being born

Baby let your head fall back
And laugh like you never
Tasted such a good thing on your tongue
Baby let your scream come
(Baby let your scream come)
You said you've been taken over
By a deeper animal.
You've been changed.
What's gone up around you
is a different skin.
You thought I wouldn't know your face.
Baby, if you can't see out
Know that I can hear you shout
And, darling, if you can't see out
You know that I can hear you shout
