Time Just Flies

Up In Smoke

Words unspoken, stories untold
Iâ€™m broken down on the side of the road,
But I make it back to you somehow Although I may be gone for a little while Hazy morning, broken dream,
A wasted life or whatever it seems
But I wouldnâ€™t change it for anyone
When I leave this life I wonâ€™t regret the things Iâ€™ve done
And I canâ€™t believe how the days drift by
Like paper airplanes towards the sky
And I canâ€™t believe how things have changed between you and I
And itâ€™s funny how, yeah ainâ€™t it funny how times just flies
You stood by my side through thick and thin
Forgave my past and forgave my sins
And for that I guess I owe you everything
I would apologize but I donâ€™t know where to begin
And I canâ€™t believe how the days drift by
Like paper airplanes towards the sky
And I canâ€™t believe how things have changed between you and I
And itâ€™s funny how, yeah ainâ€™t it funny how times just flies
And I thought that they would break me
But youâ€™re the one that saved me when my world was under darkness
You were my one and only light
They thought they could beat me
They thought they could defeat me
And youâ€™re the one that gave me strength so I could carry out this life
And I canâ€™t believe how the days drift by
Like paper airplanes towards the sky
And I canâ€™t believe how things have changed between you and I
And itâ€™s funny how, yeah ainâ€™t it funny how time just flies

Lyrics Submitted by music lover

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/