Departure Plan

Soilwork

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

You're taking care of your instincts
No matter what you do
Your life could be so much better now
When everything is throughThe demons that refused to let you go
They leave with empty hands
You got to give it a try, don't put an end to your life
'Cause that's where you choke your last sigh(You gotta rise with me)
'Cause you're so vulnerable
(Me)
No need for sympathy now
Yet so admirable
(Say)Your passion for art is your well hidden cure
'Cause that's where you have a plan
Escaping could be such a movement now
In your fragile heart all so true(You gotta rise with me)
'Cause you're so vulnerable
(Me)
No need for sympathy now
Yet so admirable
(Say)(You gotta rise with me)
'Cause you're so vulnerable
(Me)
No need for sympathy now
Yet so admirable
(Say)(You gotta rise with me)
'Cause you're so vulnerable
(Me)
No need for sympathy now
Yet so admirable
(Say)(You gotta rise with me)
'Cause you're so vulnerable
(Me)

No need for sympathy now
Yet so admirable
(Say)You'll never ever hurt yourself again
