

Let It Rain (2008 Remaster)

UFO

Two lovers in a desperate game
She holds him close but their love's in vain
And the married man that you laid
Goes back home to his own charadeShe puts her faith in every word he said
Tender moments in a motel bed
When you press the point he says we'll see
But then walks to his mysterySo darling you tell me it's a wild world
You gotta take a little pain and
How long will love last that you can Never, never explainDo you just
Let it rain, let it rain
Don't stop those tears falling again just
Let it rain, let it rain
Now you see that love's just a game
