

Rollercoaster

Primal Fear

Swimming in a pool of sharks
Diving in a sea of snakes
I'm going insaneThe needle still injects my blood
A blazing pain, a burning flood
I'm nailed to the crossConsequences melting down reality
My face turns black
I'm off the radar screenInside of a demon, he said, "Burn, burn, burn"
The mind of a devil like a rollercoaster
Inside of a demon, he said, "Burn, burn, burn"
In need of an angel to protect me from myselfStanding in the line of fire
Running through the fields of war
When my hope's been stolen nowPlease help me mend my broken wings
I have no hope but still believe
Before I lose my faithNo evidence remains
When I will fly away
I've disappeared
I'm off the radar screenInside of a demon, he said, "Burn, burn, burn"
The mind of a devil like a rollercoaster
Inside of a demon, he said, "Burn, burn, burn"
In need of an angel to protect me from myselfInside of a demon, he said, "Burn, burn, burn"
The mind of a devil like a rollercoaster
Inside of a demon, he said, "Burn, burn, burn"
In need of an angel to protect me from myselfInside of a demon, he said, "Burn, burn, burn"
The mind of a devil like a rollercoaster
Inside of a demon, he said, "Burn, burn, burn"
In need of an angel to protect me from myself
