Listen

Chad Brownlee

listen, listen to the snow thats falling doesn't snow here that often, but its coming down can you hear, the distant sound of the highway don't they know that it's not safe, to be leaving now some people go and some people stay nothing you can say will make them change baby just listen, listen to the words you're saying listen to the hearts you're breaking think about the love you're wasting baby just listen, listen to the look on my face, in case the words don't make a difference, think of what you're gonna be missing baby just listen, listen to the friends that told you life was too hard to go through, when you're all alone can you still remember, i was your best defender now you tell me you don't know whether you're better on your own oh you're gonna do what you're gonna do, there's nothing i can say to stop you so baby just listen, listen to the words you're saying listen to the hearts you're breaking

think about the love you're wasting
oh baby just listen, listen to the look on my face, in case

oh i know you want your freedom and i know that i'm the reason but i never meant to tie you down yeah and i don't think im getting through with anything i said to you so maybe i should shut my mouth baby just listen, hey baby just listen

oh baby just listen, listen to the look on my face, in case
the words don't make a difference, think of what you're gonna be missing oh baby just, listen hey, baby just listen
