

A Song That Never Comes

Cass Elliot

Listen to the emptiness of the raindrops on the ground
Beating out a rhythm to a tune that can't be found
Listen to my heart a-pounding, longing for the time
When the melody of you returns and, once again, you're mine

But I'm waiting for a song that never comes
(Waiting for a song to come)
Lost without a melody
That I can never hear
Since you're gone

Look how sad the carousel that turns with no one on
And all the dappled ponies long for children who are gone
Look into my mind, it spins and then it goes nowhere
When first I think you're coming, then I find that you're not there

But I'm waiting for a song that never comes
(Waiting for a song to come)
Lost without a melody
That I can never hear
Since you're gone

I'm waiting for a summer day in the middle of the fall
Hoping that you're coming back
When I know you're never coming back at all

But I'm waiting for a song that never comes
(Waiting for a song to come)
Yes, I'm waiting for a song that never comes
(Waiting for a song to come)
Well, I'm waiting for a song that never comes
(Waiting for a song to come)
