As One

Dropkick Murphys

Tonight my son, I'll heed the call
If you're to live, then I must fallJust give me one more moment, another walk out in the sun
One more day to find some justice with your shadow by my side
Cuff me, tie me, lock me down
'Cause I'll be back to go another roundAs oneMy blood runs red beneath the knife
I give my soul to you tonightFrom early on I was on my own with no light to guide my way
Then the hand of destiny called me only now I understand
Interwoven our lives became, bonded by blood
No need to be repaidAs oneMy blood runs red beneath the knife
I give my soul to you tonightAs oneMy blood runs red beneath the knife
I give my soul to you tonightJust give me one more moment with your shadow by my side
And we will always be together
