Spank

Studio 54

thick drops of rain sound like the way you spanked me your pleasure thrills in every way you make me thick drops. .
all by myself and you're not here to take me my red hot stain still makes you call me, baby tattooed your name, so you wouldn't forget to claim if i see you're like your daddy and i should be gone
i would try to burn you but i won't if i think that loving you could be just like a drug
i would try to burn you but i won't
it's all your graces, your deadly sins love and hate you it's so intense if i could burn you walk away not see you anymore
i would try to burn you but i won't thick drops of rain sound like the way you miss me your windowpane steams like the way you kiss me you're so profane, that's why i love the way
if i see you're like your daddy and i should be gone

if i think that loving you could be just like a drug
like drops of rain your love has no pain
if i see you're like your daddy and i should be gone
if i think that loving you could be just like a drug
if i see that you're the precious i was looking for,
i would try to burn you but i won't
if i could burn you walk away not see you anymore
i would try to burn you but i won't
