

Heaven

forever JONES

Ooh every time I think about it heaven

I'm overjoyed and overwhelmed

Doo doo

See the sound I hear is more than merely human praise

I know it shakes the gates of hell I hear angels singing majestic are you lord

Streams of glory flowing from your throne

Always and forever you reign

Holy, Holy, Holy A place where sadness is forbidden

And there are only tears of joy

And all rocky roads are smoothed away

Bada doo doo

Celestial beings are rejoicing and singing freedom songs

Along with those who've been redeemed I hear angels singing majestic are you lord

Streams of glory flowing from your throne

Always and forever you reign

Holy, Holy, Holy Oh I can see it now the joy and laughter

The thought of your presences and the here and ever after

Oh I said that I can see it now

Smiling faces everywhere

Singing holy, holy, holy Angels singing majestic are you lord

Streams of glory flowing from your throne

Always and forever you reign

Holy, Holy, Holy

Oh my god is able, able, able

Able, able, able

You are righteous, righteous, righteous x2

You are holy holy holy

Holy holy holy
