

Until You Remember

Tedeschi Trucks Band

(Verse)

Every night I pray, that you'll come back today
And hold me like, you used to do every night I spent oh just waiting on your scent
Or needing just a trace of you

(Chorus)

Well, I know it ain't refined, but I'll hold your place in line
'Til you remember that you're mine

(Verse)

It's not my first mistake
Oh, I'm sleeping wide awake.
You know I can't think straight, Oh, about you
Oh, and it's nothing that I planned, To let you slip right through my hands
Oh, I'm burning with a love, that's burned blue

(Chorus)

Well, I know it ain't refined, if I hold your place in line
'Til you remember that you're mine

(Hook)

Oh, I know it just ain't right, Holding on to you so tight
'Til you remember that you're mine

(Chorus)

Well, I know it ain't refined, but I'll hold your place in line
'Til you remember that you're mine

(Hook)

Oh, I know it just ain't right, Holding on to you so tight
'Til you remember that you're mine
