

Just One Drink

Jack White

You drink water
I drink gasoline
One of us is happy
One of us is mean
I love you
But honey, why don't you love me?
Yeah, well, I love you
But honey, why don't you love me? Just one drink gets me closer
Just one drink, it rolls you over
But then I start to think you're growing colder
The older and older, I am Well, I watch TV
You watch the ceiling
And when you turn over
I get a funny feeling
I should grab my rock and rye
And pop the top until my baby comes clean
Yeah, I should grab my rock and rye
And pop the top until my baby comes clean Well, just one sip and then you showed me
You bust your lip, I want spottieottie
So, come on take a trip if you wanna know me
And put a fork in the road with me
Alright Just one drink gets me closer
Just one drink, it rolls you over
But then I start to think you're growing colder
The older and older, I am You drink water
I drink gasoline
One of us is happy
The other one is mean
I love you
But honey, why don't you love me?
Yeah, well, I love you
But honey, why don't you love me? Yeah, I love you
Honey, why don't you love me?
