

Heartache

Robyn Ludwick

I got a heartache
and I thought it was too late
Canâ€™t get my mind straight
Cause itâ€™s hanging around back my door
And Iâ€™m sorry
Babe it ainâ€™t easy
Cause Iâ€™m a hard woman now
Cause I got a heartache

And itâ€™s been so long now
God how sweet love once was
Been a thousand months of Sundays
Been rain from up above

And Iâ€™d give it all for just one loving touch
From you, cowboy

Itâ€™s been so long now
God how sweet love once was
Been a thousand months of Sundays
Been rain high from up above
And Iâ€™d give it all for just one loving touch
From you, cowboy

I got a heartache
And I hope it ainâ€™t too late
To get my mind straight
Been hanging around my back door
Saying Iâ€™m sorry
Hoping to be
Cause Iâ€™m a hard woman now
And I got a heartache

Been so long now
God how sweet love once was
Been a thousand months of Sunday
And rain, rain from up above much
And Iâ€™d give it all
You know a little rain can do so much

So much
I hope you figure out that
Drowning tired of all this round and round and round
And I hope you hear me when I say
Say itâ€™s not enough
For you, cowboy
I got a heartache

What Iâ€™d give for your loving touch
Cause I got a heartache
