

On the Ground

Mc Sniper

[Verse One]

I wipe off my tears away from my puffy eyes with my sleeve
Everything is torn apart, I forget my days boundary
I can't open up a new morning, I waste my time behind my tears waiting for you to come back
I don't know why I'm crying so much with the second hand of my clock in my room and the confusion of my sadness

After awhile i try to calm her flowery tears
I can vaguely remember the long waits that and now they're waiting for me
I'm searching for your traces, please send me a sign
Do you think the birds will know the sounds of your scared voice
Be my echo that never fades, my spring light that shines in me
Now that I've sent this season, Oh spring please come to me

[Song]

Spring, Oh far away spring
If I close both my eyes
The place I gave my love
I can hear the faint sound of her voice

[Verse Two]

I shake and drop my head my tears are rolling around on the ground
My heart has frozen like the moonlight, it won't melt
I try to hide my feelings behind the clouds
I see the birds in the sky but they can't open up their wings
I've cherished the secrets and time has flown by I'm taking a trip and won't be coming back
I close my eyes and open them and I think I can feel you
My feelings are expressed through my tears, but the wind is blowing them away
My feelings are as scary as not being able to open my eyes
But I wipe away my tears and count to three to myself
One, two, three and now
I wish for everything to return to it's place now

[Song]

Spring, Oh far away spring
If I close both my eyes
The place I gave my love
I can hear the faint sound of her voice

[Verse Three]

Please come back to me
Oh warm spring that's left me come back to me
I'm waiting for your heart that left me
My heart is like the stars far beyond in the dark night sky
Are the flowers in front of your house still beautiful
I grab the time that's tossed over the streetlight
I put it in my pocket and wait for the day to be over

My feelings are as scary as not being able to open my eyes
But I wipe away my tears and count to three to myself
One, two, three and now
I wish for everything to return to it's place now (X2)
I wipe away my tears and count to three to myself
One, two, three and now
