Maybe California

Tori Amos

Hey Mrs. see, please don't jump
Why not? Nothing is making sense anymore to me
I don't know when I stopped making him smile
Now the kids see me cry all the timeFrom one mother to the other
They'll never get over this for their lifetime
All their wishes will be dashed upon those cliffsSo let's be be strong, you and me
The night is o-opening
Our angels are falling and they will warm

They'll warm usShe asked, "Right now? Right here?"

I'm feelin' soon, soon, my dear

Maybe Cali-California

Maybe Cali-CaliforniaAs mothers we have our troubles
You'll leave them with emptiness for their lifetime
All their wishes will be dashed upon those cliffs, those cliffsSo let's be strong, you and me
The night is oh, it is opening

Our angels are falling and they will warm
And they will warm usShe asked, "Right now? Right here?"
I'm feelin' soon, so soon, my dear
Maybe Cali-California
Maybe Cali-CaliforniaUntil then there will be starlight shining down
