

Imagine Dat

Yo Gotti

Ya

Aye you know this The Art of Hustle

On this album nigga, it's all about the laws, it's all about the rules, the shit that mean shit

So today nigga we talking about loyalty

We going back, fuck with everybody we started with Ya, they want that old Gotti flow so I went and got Drama

Classic Memphis shit bitch we 'bout to do some numbers

I get money with the Mexicans but I can't trust the runners

So focused on the money it's like I'm looking through a tunnel

Yea that tunnel vision 20/20 on you snitches

Get popped go do your time or nah, that's against my religion

Ain't no competition I'm the realest nigga in it

Fuck your favorite rapper tell 'em I said it and I meant it

When I'm in your city know I'm mobbing with them semis

I talk that gangsta shit but pussy this is not a gimmick

I want a 'Rari fuck a Hemi

A Lamb fuck a Vet

The realest in these streets awards goes to Imagine dat

They gave awards to the real niggas

Imagine dat

They gave Grammys to the drug dealers

Imagine dat

My life a movie where the Oscar

Imagine dat

I got killers on my roster

Imagine dat

They had awards for the real niggas

Imagine dat

They had a Grammy for the drug dealers

Imagine dat

This shit a movie where the Oscar

Imagine dat

No rappers I got killers on my roster They give another award to a fuck nigga I might jump onstage like Kanye

Got Taylor Swift and Beyonce, nominated what the streets say

Fuck a Grammy I'll take a million dollars right now

Free all the real niggas right now

Hustler of the year

Boy I move my momma out the hood

I took my niggas out the hood

I'm good in any nigga hood

I'm good in any nigga city
We fucking all these niggas bitches
No security my young niggas with me
Choppas and anybody can get it for real
Box of baking soda trophy
When you battle rap you get murked
Niggas only need prayer in church
Fresh to death red carpet hearse
If Pimp C was the host
If BMF had a set
And the realest in these streets award goes to who
