

Redemption Blues

Alejandro Escovedo

Who will fight tomorrow?
Who will fight today?
Who will fight tomorrow?
Who will change their way?
I hear a baby cryin' all night long.
I hear his mother cryin' all night long. Sun it burns like hell. Burns a mother clean.
Sun it burns a hole. Hole in a baby's dream.
I wish my father would come.
I wish my mother would not cry all night long.
Someday I'll find some redemption.
I'll find a little peace. Blue steel for protection.
Blue steel is my guide.
Need a little love.
From the other side. My ancestors, I wish they would come.
Help my mother stop from cryin' all night long.
Find some redemption.
Someday I'll find, I'll find a little peace.
