

Seein' You

RKL

Saw you just the other day.
Same old look on your face.
That's when I realized how long it's really been.
Nothing really changes but the time between good friends
We joke about troubles.
We haven't grown apart.
Suddenly it's all so clear, The memories of old times so sincere
Girl there's more I wanna say,
That situation still prevents today.
You needed to be loved,
Mine alone was not enough
It's just too much Seein' You!
It's just too much Seein' You!
