Alicia Renee- I been told I ain't gone make it thru. I been told I ain't as good as you

Verse 1 Cthekon
Yaa what? U sayin I won't make it, raises my determination, to make the greatest record breaking rap phrases, for all ages/ embrace it, n may Good things come to those that wait patient, n better things come to those that chase it, so go head n take it/
I came, I saw infinity, I ate it!
N proved myself worthy thru the process of initiation/
demonstrating greatness,
In every statement,
faces light up in amazement,
Call it Inspirational modivation/
The basis of my versification, rhymes with the same shit (tru)
Til Ur hateful opinion changes
Like yeaa thats dedication/ (tru)
Provoking you to engage in, a solution in relation to problematic situations
With no hesitation, to get ur way in/
But When life starts to feel like enslavement n dont wanna face it, Music entertainment is the way I'm able to escape it/ so how could you say that I wont make it- thru, If youu never knew exactly where I was gonna take it - to fool!/

Alicia Renee -Chorus-
I been told I ain't gone make it thru
I been told I ain't as good as you
But I know better
I know better uhhhhhhh
I been told I ain't never could shine
I been told I ain't worth the time
But I know better
I know better uhhhhhhh

Verse 2 Cthekon
They see what my name is,

who the face is, n where I'm stayin,
I call it a curse, u call it being famous/(yup)
What's it worth? When everywhere u go, Feels unbearable, cuz I dont expect any folks to go up to me like a person they cared to kno/ (yooo)
My goal is tearing holes
Thru headphones n stereos,
Wit the force of this very flow, (whoaa)
Bury bones, perish souls,/ n blow up harder then I was suppose to years ago/ then Live, love, n laff hysterical, Witta pair of hoes, Makin hella dough, from the medical,
N U already know/ I flow better, spit it fast n Slow better, fire off, reload better, a go getter/ wit recordz, in rotation like pro-pellarz- oh yessah, I 'know' better, so anything u do I do mo' better hahaa/ a fortune teller said the more I endeavor so clever, the better, forget the, temporary pleasure n get everybody together to be remembered forever n ever n ever yea!/
