Negative

Joey Jetson

Stop, you're looking miserable
Can't be bothered gettin' up today
My future's looking positive
No one even picked on me todaySo you tested negative
Panic in your bedsit goes away
You convert to Scientology
To feel a part of something once againI look downwards, I look downwards
Feeling negative, looking negative
I see downwardsI see downwards, I look downwards
I see negative, feeling negative
Looking downwardsHave you ever told a lie to hide a lie?
Shame on you, you've compromised again
'Cos things are closin' in on you
Not so far away as they may seemHave you ever told a lie to hide a lie?
Shame on you, you've compromised again
And things are closin' in on you
Not as far away as they may seemI look downwards, I see downwards
Seeing negative, seeing negative
I see downwardsI look downwards, I see downwards
Feeling negative, seeing negative
Looking downwardsSomeone nudged me in the street
Someone looked at me twice, now I'm negative
Someone nudged me in the street
Someone poked me in the eye, now I'm negativeI look downwards, I look downwards
Feeling negative, seeing negative
I feel downwardsI see downwards, I see downwards
Feeling negative, oh, negative
Oh, downwardsI see downwards, I see downwards
Feeling negative, negative
DownwardsI feel downwards, I see downwards
Looking negative, seeing negative
Looking downwards
