Brand New Feeling

Rick Springfield

It's a brand new feeling that I never ever had before
And I'm always amazed at the range of my emotions
'Cause it's a brand new feeling
Getting better every minute of the day
And it fits me like a glove
And it rocks me like a boat on the ocean
Ah, who'd a believed it, oh, I must be getting lazy
Spending so much time with just one girl
Lord, this is crazy, but I'm not running anywhere, anyhow
I'm staying right here, it'll do for now
'Cause it's a brand new feeling, that I never ever had before
And I'm always amazed at the range of my emotions
'Cause it's a good, good feeling
Getting better every minute of the day
And it fits me like a glove
And it rocks me like a boat on the ocean
Brand new feeling
Brand new, brand new feeling
'Cause you look up and smile, this never happen before
God, this is really strange, let me have some more
Coconut butter, pull the curtains tight
Feeling better already, I'm staying in tonight
'Cause it's a brand new feeling, that I never ever had before
And I'm always amazed at the range of my emotions
'Cause it's a good, good feeling
Getting better every minute of the day
And it fits me like a glove
And it rocks me like a boat on the ocean
Brand new feeling
Brand new, brand new feeling
I said, it fits me like a glove
And it rocks me like a boat on the ocean
It's a brand new, it's a brand new
It's a brand new feeling
