Lullaby

Ohlayindigo

Counting the days, counting all the different ways
You make me feel
That the young thought held us back and before real
That it's real when life happens,
Are you in around? In around?Lonely at night, you rather called on me
But I'm a single queen
And this bed is so much bigger without you
I can roll around two times
Before I hit the ground
Hit the groundI've realized since you walked through the door
That what we have is worth fighting for
Finding the patience, finding the will
Keep going on when time sits still
'Cause baby I know now you're the one that I think of
When I'm lying in bed at night,
You're my, you're my bittersweet lullaby
'Cause baby I know now you're the one that I dream of
When I'm holding my head as high
You're my bittersweet lullabyWaiting again, waiting for our daily hours worth the talk
And as soon as we had nothing, it's time to walk
'Cause it's eight o'clock already, can't be late for work
(Not again)
Where have you been? Cancelled all my other plans to fit you in
I've been starring at my screen since 'bout 2:10
Said I know it's not your fault, so, still I'm here for you
Just say whenI've realized since you walked through the door
That what we have is worth fighting for
Finding the patience, finding the will
Keep going on when time sits still'Cause baby I know now you're the one that I think of
When I'm lying in bed at night,
You're my bittersweet lullaby
'Cause baby I know now you're the one that I dream of
When I'm holding my head as high
You're my, you're my bittersweet lullabyYou're my bittersweet lullaby
You're my bittersweet lullaby
Finding the patience, finding the will
Keep going on when time sits still'Cause baby I know now you're the one that I think of
When I'm lying in bed at night,
You're my bittersweet lullaby

'Cause baby I know now you're the one that I dream of
When I'm holding my head as high
You're my, you're my bittersweet lullaby
