Point Of View

Berner

[1st Verse:]Decisions made blindly.
But I traded it all away.
As these footsteps, they get stronger now.
I turn my back I see you walking away.
Your so far away.
[Pre Chorus:]The pistol is lying beside you.
But you cant fire back when you've got nothing left.
[Chorus:]On the inside of my mind.
I know you'll never be satisfied with my point of view.
On your life.
The inside of my mind.
I know you'll never be satisfied with my point of view.
On your life.
[2nd Verse:]I've taken all that I can take.
But you claim you see the only way.
As these footsteps, they get softer now.
You turn your back you see me walking away.
I'm so far away.
[Pre Chorus:]The pistol is lying beside you.
But you cant fire back when you've got nothing left.
[Chorus:]On the inside of my mind.
I know you'll never be satisfied with my point of view.
On your life.
The inside of my mind.
I know you'll never be satisfied with my point of view.
On your life.
[Bridge:]You will fucking bleed for me.
You will fucking bleed for me.
Motherfucking bleed for me.
Motherfucking bleed for me.
[Chorus:]On the inside of my mind.
I know you'll never be satisfied with my point of view.
On your life.
The inside of my mind.
I know you'll never be satisfied with my point of view.
On your life.
