Letters to Cleo

I was on your side and I can't believe
That it's coming back to haunt me
You were on that side too
And I can't, no, I can't go back and save youWhy didn't you do as you were told?
Why didn't you just go home?
And what you got in the bag?Non-recognition is the way
To keep everything you wanna hide
You stay on that side now
'Cause I won't, no, I won't go back and bail you outCloser to the thing we had before
And what you got in the bag?You were closer than you thought
Closer than you thought you'd get
Don't you worry that pretty head now
Never thought that's what you'd getNon-recognition is the way
To keep everything you wanna hide
You stay on that side now
'Cause I won't, no, I won't go back and bail you outWhy didn't you do as you were told?
Why didn't you just go home?
Now you're never coming backYou were closer than you thought
Closer than you thought you'd get
Don't you worry that pretty head now
Never thought that's what you'd get
